Growing in Christ | Showing Christ | Going Christ's Way

Bible readings:

Easter 4 Acts 2:42-47 Psalm 23 1 Peter 2:19-25, John 10:1-10

Weekly reflection

The image of Jesus as Shepherd is well known, it is an image of comfort, safety and security. While we like the security of the being enclosed in the sheep pen as explained in the reading from John for this Sunday, we are also challenged by the fact that Christ calls us out of the sheep pen to be his people into the world. A people of action showing his love to the neighbour, sharing his compassion with those on the margins, seeking the lost, feeding the hungry, helping those who are sick and helping the poor.

As this isolation drags on we might wonder how do we show this love of the good shepherd stuck at home. Maybe we could show Christ's care and compassion, by calling a friend, helping a neighbour, showing kindness to a stranger even when we might feel frustrated ourself. May we continue to be hands and feet of the Good Shepherd as we reach out and share his love for all.

God Bless Rev. Andrew

Ways to keep in touch

During this time of no gathering, it is more important than ever to keep in touch with each other.

Here are some options that you might consider.

1. Weekly worship online

Our worship services are being recorded and uploaded online to our YouTube channel and website at oxleydarrauc.org.au . Please share our website address with as many people as you can. It is also on our Facebook page.

For those without internet access, DVDs & CDs of the service are being produced. Please contact Rev Andrew to get a copy delivered.

2. Call someone

Make it your aim to call at least one person from church every day. Our church directory was recently updated. If you would like an electronic version, please contact Rev Andrew.

3. Keep up to date via email

If you have an email address that we don't currently have or an updated address, please let us know. Send an email to communications.oxleydarrauc.@gmail.cor to be added to our email distribution list.

4. Don't sit in silence.

Give Rev. Andrew or Sharyn Sinnamon a call (0410064675) and let us know how things are going for you.
